I.C.CONTEMPORARY

Our Mandate

I. C. Contemporary is a self-run curatorial institution that prides in its focus on supporting local and emerging talent. Artist's from all stages of their careers are welcome to apply to be a part of ICC future exhibits, however we recognize the economic and social barriers the art community can place ahead of emerging artists.
We wish to provide a space for artists in an accessible institution, whether that be from the comfort of their home or on the bus going to work. We also understand that as artists, it can be difficult to obtain gallery exposure for your work to be seen and, preferably, bought. This is why I. C. Contemporary is accepting art submissions on a pay what you can basis. Please consider donating any amount you feel is appropriate by using the donate button found on the donate page when submitting your application.

Though it is not enforced, we encourage providing a 10% commission from any sales made during your time as our Artist of the Month.

This is an institution purely run by volunteer work, therefore there are no honorariums guaranteed at this time. However, with every donation we receive we are one step closer to ensuring that all the artists are being paid for exhibition periods.

Eligibility for Artist of the Month

Before submitting, we ask that you review the criteria below in order to be eligible. Preference is given to emerging artist with little to no exhibition history.
